ITUNDREDS of persons, afflicted by this grevious mall, adv, have made use of this hardwine; and it has rarely fulled to give satisfaction. In some cases its good effects have been truly wonderful.

The Rev. Insight T. Hawes, of Edgeamb, Me. under date of April 15, 1838, certifies, "that his wife, after having been afflicted with Salt Rheum, at times, especially in the winter season, for more than inclee years, applied about one year ago to Mr. Trufant for the OHYMEST AND MEDICINE, which he had advertised, as a curs for this dreadful disease. She obtained and used it for several weeks agreeably to the prescription of Mr. Trufant, when to her great joy, she found herself, to appaarance perfect weeks agreeating to the prescription of air. Irdiant, when to her great joy, she found herself, to appearance perfect by cured. She has had some small symptoms of the disorder once since, but a brief application of the violatment &c. has removed them." He further adds, "Though I will yield to no one in my hatred to quarkery, I do most cordially recommended "Mr. Trufant's Patent Medicine for the Sait Rheum" to all who are afflicted with this dreadful mailed: " dreadful malady."

Mr. Joel Howe, of West Prospect, in a letter dated A pril 12, 1838, to the paramee says "I have a daughter, who was very much afficted with Salt Rhoum for Jeans, by applying which she obtained relief and for six modulis mast, has enjoyed comfortable health.

Mr. Sauruel Adams, druggist, Hallowell, has been agent for the sales of "Trufant's Remedy for Salt Rheum"; for a few months, and during that time, he observes, "he has seen persons afflicted with the Salt Ebeum in every degree, from a slight touch on the hand to the covering of the whole body completely cured by the above medicine.

From Mr. Huston Stinson of Georgetown, Ma.

This is to certify that my wife has been sorely affilted with the Salt Eheum, at times, from a child; and often for months in succession, so that she was unable to be about house. bout house.

During this time she made use of almost every thing which had been recommended to her as good for the complaint, but found little relief; and had formed the conclusion that there was no help for her. In 1837, she and her child (six months old) were so badly afficted that they had but little rest, day or night; the child being almost covered with sores, and had been in this state for several months. "A brother of mine, knowing the distress of my Compound for Salt Rhoum. Agreeably to his advise, I purchased a quantity of it, and applied it as directed; and I can safely say that in two or three days, they found great relief; and in four week's time, the disorder entirely disappeared. Since that, they have been free from all human and active the disorder entirely disappeared. Since that, they have been free from all human careful the state of the control of the contr sppeared. Since that, they have been free from all bumore whatever, and enjoy good health, and I have reason to believe are perfectly cured. I have host two children with the same complaint. Had the same medicine been applied to them, I have good reason to believe that, they would now have been living. I value the Compound highly and remachy for that awful disease, and with pleasure weald recommend it to all who may be afflicted with it. -

Georgetown, May 19, 1838.

No person need fear any gail from it however old or young, or feelile; for it is simple, and may be applied with safety. It is also a cure for other humors, such as Ring-worses, Scald-Head, Leprony, Shingles, Itch, for what is sampleimes called the Jackson Itch, and for all extaneous diseases. Price one doffar.

Their party have again succeeded in setting a majority of the votes an increased Mineity, if they please. But upon buth eides there Bas been a falling off since last year, al though the whig votes have fell a off the most We have stated several causes for the decrease of votes, and smong them mentioned the fact of s great during whig voters having left the Stale. | professional gamblers in Richmond, Virginia. This is true; and a here are, making preparations and trust very many of the most promising for so doings units se do not put down as the young men of that city have been ruined by sale or even the principal cause of their vacanse, hat as one cause among others. The origin of this space however is worthy a tunnent's attenthin. Why if it that in our nen and night be prosperous blate, mechaniscand young men generally, though active, beameas men, should find it incressory to leave their homes and seck out bullness cik altere? The Lithering depress sion in business has been brought about by official mismanagement and corruption, in the general government, by a scramble for spoils and power, under the plea of a financial experiment. that has reduced the treasury and the prosperity and hopes of the people to nearly the condition of a mouse in an exhausted receiver.

The operation of the locofoco policy in our State is olearly portrayed in the following paragraph, which we copy from the Kennebec Jour-

"No State in the Union has greater capacity for manu facures than Mairs, but woler locofoca missule, with a constant warface even all improvements; manufactures discouraged in every possible way; capitalists and banks demonated as rag barons; and corporations proscribed as leatile to democracy, nathing whatever can be done here. The Birte government will do nothing, nor permit indi-viduals to do any thing. Capitalists abroad will not risk their money here; in fact they exend do it unless they come with it and use it themselves without the uni of incorporations. The people of the State, whose means are small, cannot unite those means in incorporated companies, because no man will take one hundred dollars of stock in a company, if in addition to the loss of it he is liable to fue one hundred thousand dollars. The custonence is, that our splendid water power remains mecanipied, and our enterprising young men are going off to other. State. where they say importer. The evidence of the is before our eyes every day, and the following votes go far to pre-3 it. As we have said before, 5 out numbers did not go to the pells in the country towns, but in the rities and larger towns, it may be presumed most of the voters did vote. We give the entire vote thrown in the following places.

In 1836 and 1839 Portland 1555 1063 Banger Oxedino:

Here it will be seen that in no less then six towns and the twin of see that in a less that so were than the less that to were mining more than to less that the there are they? And have many will be absent next year? If our population is actually leaving us now, how will it has when we put on the twes to pay a fitte debt of a nillion such a half of doltars?

The locologo leaders and editors who are fed and fattened by the gains of office and patronage, may see in all this nothing but what is de sirable, but those who depend upon their labor for their daily bread who are interested in the presperity of the State, will find in it much to regret, and not a little to fear.

But the effect upon the purses and stomachs, and backs of the people, although Authr of high consideration, dwindle into insignificance when ed with those greater political and moral evils that hang like a aloud upon the future prospects of our country, and thicken with the conthouse of the escendency of the party now in

The purity of the electoral franchise, the pillars of acy-titutional guards and checks, are fact thing sacpt away, and the effort still is, to unite purre and sword in the hands of one man. > [From the New York Dispatch.] THE PATHER. A THRILLING MTORY.

In the May number of Bentley's Magazine, we find one of the most thrilling tales it was ever our lot encounter- In its dreadful passages it is not without a moral and one tee, which in the present day of divisions among matried couples, cannot be too vividly impressed, even at the cost of the pain which the following horthem Sock not to discover the faults of a rid rarative may give any reader of common sensibility. There is no prophecying to what fearful lengths a quarrel between husband and wite may be lumented by an enemy of one, or a blood ! pretended friend of either party.

To introduce the story, it is merely necessary remark that the nametor is a physician, who ts called to visit the son of David Baynon, a subintential Welch Farmer and treeholder] ... You are a widower, I believe, David?' I remarked. (In rural Wales we exclude the 'sir,' and the succame, and the 'mister' so frequent in in the Saxon usage)

Why, no; but much the same thing My wife is alive, but her brother and I were on bad terms before our marriage, and works ofter ; this led to quarrels, which always made things worse so we parted. Then we had a great disoute about which should have my little Peter. We could not both have him, and would not. I have no relations, she has many ; so I though she could better spare him than I could So I have been both lather and mother to him; al ways in invilan, in my arms, and in my bed; abroad with me up the hill with the sheep, and in the snow he would twoddle after me." tis your wife still destrous to have him with her? I enquired Purious about him still, I hear I should be sorry for her, but I hear that she finds a coinforter in a fellow who courted her before we were married. I've had thoughts of coming together again, far little Peter's sake, in cree I should with her. On reaching the antique home I found a very weet little buy, combby pale, patient stretched under which he was suffering too likely to prove his death bed.

Of terrible and overwhelming evils the mind does not readily admit the probability; but when this happy incredulity is once overcome by evidence, the transition to absolute despair is rapid and equally unresponable with the previous obninger of hope.

Hence it was, that no sooner had I signified a thevid that his child was in great danger, than his eyes tolled and deleted as if under _ --... 44. tonishing news, and a wild dismay marked his whole countenance. He stood a minute sixtuelike; asked again, if I meant that this child was States at the next census, will exceed accenteen actually likely to die, and, without waiting a reply, burnt forth, "O my God! my God! shall I do?" then can to his child as if he had but a minute more to see him alive, hung over and, Illinois, for fifty cents a bushel, and in him in dunbagons, and at last sented his agony Afraid to flatter him with hope, I said something common-place of his having surely known that his child was mortal.

"Mortal" he exclaimed : 'why, ay; and so It is also stated that it completely divided the am I too, thanks to God! for how could I bear waters as it passed the Passaic, and threw out to live without him now? Sir, what avails it now? Now Dunlap, of St. Mary's street, Philadelphis, on I wish to God he had been less good, less fond wish I could remote tone lault be had see him no more. Oh! ductor, bear with me; with ine, or for me!"

On my second visit, delirium had supervened in my little patient. The first indication of wandering intellect in a beloved object, is, to gran the hest regulated mind, dreadid; but to our extravagant recluse it was a gorgon that at most produced a kindred feeling of the mind to that visible in the object he so doated on.

The boy fancied himself on the hill side with the sheep, and the afrighted father tried almost angrily to convince hun of the delusion, as if he would steady and hold back by force that reason which he saw departing that mind of piecoclour power of which he had been so proud, now wandering and groping in the shadows of a night too likely to prove eternal.

A prelig, but vacant smile only answered to the agonized and eager words of the parent thus striving against nature: but once his hollow horror of voice and accent acemed to rough the sufferer; for he feebly tried to raise his arm as if to wipe away tears he saw, streaming from his father's eyes, and by that pathetic and pretty action brought many more. Day after day -this impassioned parent sat sleepless, wan and without food, holding that small hand, and counting the beats of that frighted pulm, astching every turn of those helf-extinguished eyes, a hore light had been the very light of him.

After the storts of distress in the house of Llandefelok and the quiet on .. of the Glasnaut I had the great pleasure of seeing theirestored child and father lying on the sunny sod stanting down to the farmy little Brook; himted -the cowline and harebells, the former nearly well ror and othe happy, surrounded with alacted a toy led the unbuppy -ife; sho wept bitterly. shop the various toys procured from a distant town, the pramised remaids of good conduct in taking the requisite remedies. Again I visited that valley and spot. I saw the father with folded are walking thoughtful ly, rather sullenly, on by him If, and little Peter calling after him to stop for him, in being still too feeble to hasten much. The father stopped at last but rather, I thought, as if ashamed that I should are his inattention to the My, then moved by his ager and half teproachful ball. Then be weated himself on the ground in strange absence of mind, as if forgetting me, his pada, everything.

I should have thought, David, your heart would have blad to fig w tears from those beautiful eyes, and stried to consule him by my kiss and a present, for the want of his lather's Suddenly the latter spream up out of his dis-consolate reverie, and he broke lotth in a hollow goice of frightful energy.

Dues not my heart bleed then ? Have I shed o tours? Sir, tor every tear that my cruelty draws from his, mine sheds hundreds in the dead of night loudy long and lon-ly night-He is no longer my little bedfellow now, no more now hever more! It ever agony did force blood from a wretch's eyes, I have wep!

While he raved thus, his large melancholy eyes were fixed on the brook; he semed to be rather in Cussionate solitority than addressing me, although answering me; and after a pause he wept and trembled like an infant, adding in a quieter tone

Would to God we had again one bed, even this earth! one grave, one 'death hour, to lie shroud by shroud, as hand in hand we used to elsep. eweetly! O my boy! niy boy! I had been. happy to see you die a few short weeks ago, to suck in death from thy poor black lips, and lay me down forever by thy side oh! while I could have said, 'farewell my boy'! But now oh! now

He broke off there and fixed a item, yet ! thought, a sort of shameface'd look on me, and recalled by my presence, as it seemed, to more self recollection, he started and exclaimed

'How I have been talking to you, a stranger!' [The reader needs here an explination of this change, which we cannot afford space to give in the long array of words in the original sketch. In the joy at the recovery of little Peter, the father invited his wife home. After a sort of reconciliation, the old quarrel broke out atresh as to who should have the child. The maing uity of the bruto of a brother of Mrs. Benyon had led him to good his old enemy, David, by of promoting a nation's welfare, is to improve its die, that he might not have in a mother a strang- having at the infidelity of his sister! He even greathat day had purchased. er to go to; but, since I heard that, I we done, insinuated that the child so dearly loved, was the son of the former lover of Mrs Benyon, before her marriage to David. In the next of the new quarrel, the unhappy mother, either wishon what appeared from the dangerous lever ing to estrange their husband from Peter, and thus effect her object, or urged by the mere fury of revenge, forgot decency and herecified far as to avow the truth of the scandal raised my her brother. David broke up the interview with horrible curses on his wife; and from that ionment never looked into the aweet and innocent eyes of his son without "ceing there the mage of the man's countenance whom he believed had wronged him. He absented humself from home and from Peter, and hid his misery in solitude. The neglected, renditive boy fell nick again]

Meanwhile the wife, who had inflicted all this agony on the father, was suffering a arcely less. Even the fulness of revenue, indulged against tion will be discussed. those for whom love still lingers in the heart (and such was the case of Margaret Benyon) is like the recoil of a gun in an baskillal band, which, burging with its overcharge, proves more fatal to the party alming to wound, then to the object sound at. A terrible nort of compunction preyed on her wind from the moment of her fatal, self criminating tolly. As soon as news reached her (at the distance of some miles) will sell at public Vendue, on THURSDA of the new illness of the child (she being at the time herself dingerously ill) she despatched a most earnest request for an interview with her husband. TT cannot be denied that whitst many medicines which are recommended to the public, have not even the negative morit of harmlessness, there are others which it would be great injustice indeed and sujerdal prejudice to involve untried, in a common condemnation. And when a medicine comes endowed with all the great names that have adorned the annals of the modical profession, and warranted by the seal and signature of long and uniform success, its proprietor makes no unreasounble demand upon the public confidence, when he claims for it a

The Camomile Preparation by Dr. Wm. Evans is underlably entitled to this enviable distinction, lor whilst no medical authority in existence condemns it, every medical practitioner that is acquainted with it, fre ly asknowledgestre-pro-consent-victure and that the latter should do so in opposition to their personal interests, must be attributed either to their cander and love of truth, or to their unwillinguess to fly in the face or althroservation, and the testimony of thousands. Dr. W. Evans does not pretend that his Camomile Tonic Pills will cate att-diseases. He trankly and conscientiously admits that they will not. He fays no claim to the discovery of the "Philosopher's Sione," and wishes noticely to believe that he relia. "Elixit of Life," but he does say, and he does believe, and he can prove, thet in debility and im paired constitution; in Nervous diseases of all kinds; in weakness of the digostive organs, in incipient consumptions, whether of the lungs or the liver; in the dreadful dehility occasioned by the use of purgatives; in palsy, theumatism, (more especiy) in the sickness incident to mothers, and to lemales of relaxed nerves; in every case of delirium tremens, or that disease which is brought on by intemperance; in the wretched horrors of body mind which azerne from occasional inclirity floss of appetite, langor, melancholy, pains in the head, limbs, or side; in corrupt saffow, and indecinally complexion, caused by the had state of the fluids in all these cases, and in others mentioned in the

This much is placed beyond a doubt by daily testimomes which would be given on oath, and for this much Dr. W. Evans can conscienrinusly request confidence. He therefore need only add that his Camomile Tonic Pills, together with his excellent Family Aperient Pitts, can be obtained wholesale or retail at No. 7. Division street near Chatham square, N. York, and his authorized agents in town and country.

Other and more conclusive demonstrations of the efficacy of Dr. Evans' Camomile Preparation and it is utterly impossible to use them without benefit.

Aperient Medicines, are submitted by the following More than twelve thousand persons can be referred to important and extraordinary cures effected by their who have been cured of complaints apparently of the ர்ந்நortant and extraordinary cores effected by their highly modernal qualities; all of which may be seen at Dr. Wm. Evans' Medical Office, No 7, Division street. One of two of these he herewith respecially gives to a discriminating public.

Dr. Wm. Evans Bir, be pleased to receive the thanks of one who has been a great sufferer for several years, for the great benefits she has received from the virtues of your inestimable Camomile Pills. She has suffered with pain and distress in the head, a lightness across the head, a lightness across the stomach, shortness of breath, and palpitation of the heart; exercise would almost overcome her; but since using your Camoinile Tonie Pills, her conplaints are removed she is able to exercise without fatigue and she is happy to say, can enjoy lifecomfortably again.

Newark, July 18, 1836 Dear Sir, for four years I have been so unwell that I was unable to attend to my business, and for the last 4 or 5 months was confined in my room, my complaints were thermatism, pains in my stomach, indigestion and toss of appetite, with continued pain and dizziness in my head; I used different kinds of medicines without effect; until I commenced taking your invaluable months and Aperical Phils; their beneficial effects upon me aperical Philosophia and Aperical Philosophia Phi Camomile and Aperiest Pills; their beneficial ef-fects upon me astonish all who know my situation. In a few days I shall be at your office to express my wellude to you in person . In he mean time I soliscribe mysclf your most ob'tserv't.

Dr. Win. Evans.

Extractof a letter from Jonas Snyder, Postmaster, Kanzville, Pa. 10 Dr. Wm. Evans. Among veveral cases 'an elderly lady who had been 25 yrs. afflicted with nervous hypochondria, debility &c. that for the last 3 years she constantly received medical aid from a respectable physician, but the pressure and pain on her heart and breast, and especial ly in her left side, remained immovable, attended at long intervals with weakness in her head and on her mind keeping her discouraged to undertake any thing. In May she commenced using Dr. W. Evans' Camomile and Family Apericut Pills, according to the direction accompanying them. A reaction took place; the pains and pressure in her body was re-moved, her mind became clear and strong; her spirits perfectly good, and up to this time is in all respects restored to health, which for the last 10 years she has not enjoyed."

JONAS SNYDER. On Low Spinits. Low spirits is a certain state of the mind, accompanied by indigestion wherein the greatest evils are appreliended upon the slightest grounds, and the worst consequences imagined Ancient writers supposed this disease to be confined to those particular regions of the abdomen, technically called hypochondria which are situated on the right or left side of that cavity, whence comes the name hypochondriasis.

Symptoms. The common corporeal symptoms are flatulency in the stomach or howels, acrid cructations, costiveness, spasmodic pains, giddiness dimness of sight, palpitations, and often an unter inability of fixing the attention upon any subject of im-portance, or engaging in any thing that demands vigor or courage. Also languidness; the mind becomes irritable, thoughtful, despending, melancholy and dejected, accompanied with a total derangement of the nervous system. The neutal feelings and peculiar train of ideas that haunt the imagination of the course of the included the course of the tion and overwhelm the judgment exhibitan infinite diversity. The wisest and best of men are as open to this affliction as the weakest.

CAUSES. A sedentary life of any kind, especially severe study, protracted to a late bour in the night, and rarely relieved by social intercourse, or exercise, a dissolute habit, great excess in eating and drinking, the immoderate the of mercury, violent purgatives, the suppression of some habitual discharge, or long continued eruption; relaxation or debility of one or more important organs within abdomen, is frequent gause.

TRYATMENT The principal objects of frealment are, to remove indigestion, to strengthen the body, and to cliven the spirits, which may be promoted by exercise, early hours, regular meals and pleasant emweration. The nowels (if costive) being carefully regulated by the occasional use of a mild apcrient. We know nothing better calculated to obtain this end; than Dr. Wm. Evans' Aperient Pills-heing mild and certain in their operation. The how-Pills. (which are tonic, anondyne, & anti-spasmodic) are an infallible remedy, at without dispute have proved a great blessing to the numerous public. Some physicians have recommeded a free use of mercury but it should not be reserted to an in any cases it will greatly aggrevate symptoms. Sold wholesale and vetail by

They suit ALL COMPLAINTS and all ages, and are as natural to the human constitution as food; consequently they can never injurg even the most delicate. Like our food, they are ligestible; therefore they enter into the circulation and impart an energy to the blood, which enables it to flow impart an energy to the blood, which enables it to flow with freedom quite to the extremeties, and consequently to keep the pures of the skin open. They are true and perfect-purifiers of the blood; because they drain all corrupt humors from that his giving fluid. They impart rupt humors from that life giving fluid. They import strength and vigor of the whole system, and their effects are ulways beneficial; because they only remore those humors which are opposed to health. They aid and improve direction, and sound sleep follows their use; be cause they cleaned the stomach and bowels of those slimy humors which not only irritate and excite the nervous system, but paralyze and weaken the digestive organs.
